

Sinclair Broadcasting clearly demonstrates everything that is wrong about deregulating the media, when it requires its 60+ affiliates to preempt their schedules to show a partisan political film.

Me thinks the Vietnam veterans protest too much.

Here's the ticket: Let Sinclair air this rant, IF, on a subsequent date, before the election, in an equally desirable time slot, Sinclair airs the entire testimony Kerry presented before Congress on April 22, 1971. To read the testimony, go here:

<http://www.c-span.org/2004vote/jkerrytestimony.asp>

I think you'll be surprised.

To read the specific incidents to which Kerry referred, go here:

http://lists.village.virginia.edu/sixties/HTML_docs/Resources/Primary/Winter_Soldier/WS_entry.html